01 Introduction to Partnership

Partnership

Meaning and Definition:

Partnership is an association of two or more persons who agree to combine their financial resources and managerial abilities to operate a business and share Profits and Losses in an agreed ratio.

The definition of Partnership as per the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 is, “Partnership is the relation between persons who have agreed to share profit of business carried on by all or any of them acting for all.”

Features:

- i. Agreement: Partnership is formed on the basis of an agreement between two or more persons to carry on business activities. Agreement may be in written or oral form. The terms and conditions of partnership are laid in a document known as Partnership Deed.
- ii. Registration: It is not compulsory to register a partnership firm except, in the state of Maharashtra. However, if the partners so decide, it may be registered with the Registrar of Firms.
- iii. Lawful Business: Illegal business activities are not permitted by law. Partnership form of business should only undertake those business activities which are permitted by law or which are legal.
- iv. Membership: To form a partnership firm, minimum two persons are required. The maximum limit on the number of persons is 10 for banking business and 20 for other businesses. If the number exceeds the above limit, the partnership becomes illegal.
- v. Sharing of Profits and Losses: There must be an agreement among the partners to share the Profits and Losses of the business in an agreed profit sharing ratio. All partners of the firm will be entitled to an equal share in Profits and Losses, if the partnership deed is silent about the ratio.
- vi. Unlimited Liability: The partners of the firm have Unlimited Liability. They are jointly as well as individually liable for the debts and obligations of the firms. If the Assets of the firm are insufficient to meet the firm's Liabilities, the personal properties of the partners can also be utilized for the repayment of the firm's Liabilities. However, the Liability of a Minor Partner is limited to the extent of his share in the profit.
- vii. Management: All the partners can participate actively in the business management depending on the agreement formed.
- viii. Dissolution: Dissolution means to close the business. Legally, a partnership comes to an end if any partner dies, retires or becomes insolvent.
- ix. Relationship between the Partners: The partnership business may be carried on by all or any of the partners acting for all. Thus, each partner is a principal and so can act in his own right. At the same time, he can act on behalf of the other partners as an agent. Thus, every partner acts as an Agent as well as Principal.

Types of Partners

Following are the various types of partners:

- i. Active Partners: Partners who take active part in the conduct of day-to-day transactions of the firm are called Active Partners. These partners perform the business activities on behalf of other partners.
- ii. Sleeping Partners: A Sleeping Partner is also known as Dormant Partner. Sleeping or Dormant Partners are those, who do not take active part in the management of the business. Such partners only contribute capital in the firm and are bound by the activities of other partners. However, they share in the profits and losses of the business.

- iii. Nominal Partners: Nominal partners are those who lend their name to the firm but do not have interest in the business. They do not make any capital contribution and are not entitled to take part in management, but are liable to third parties, like the other partners.
- iv. Minor Partner: A minor is a person who has not completed 18 years of age. A minor cannot become a partner because he is not qualified to enter into a contract. However, he may be admitted to the benefits of partnership with the mutual consent of all the partners. His liability is limited to the extent of his share in the capital and profits of the firm.
- v. Partner in Profits only: This type of a partner only shares in the profits of the firm. However, his liability for the firm's debts is unlimited. He is not allowed to take part in the management of the firm. A partnership firm may associate with such a partner for their money and goodwill.
- vi. Partner by Estoppel: A Partner by Estoppel neither contributes capital nor is entitled to any share in the profits. He is actually not a partner in the firm. However, any person who represents himself in front of a third party as a partner of the firm becomes a Partner by Estoppel. He becomes liable to the third parties that presume him to be a partner of the firm.

Partnership Deed

Partnership Deed is the written agreement between or among the partners. It is also known as Articles of Partnership. Partnership Deed lays down the terms and conditions of partnership and the rights, duties and obligations of partners for the internal management of the firm. A partnership deed is very helpful in situations of conflicts or disputes arising between partners. The relations of partners are governed by the Partnership Deed. A Partnership Deed generally contains the following important contents:

- i. Name and address of the Partnership Firm.
- ii. Nature of business to be conducted and its duration.
- iii. Names, Addresses and other information about the partners.
- iv. The total amount of Capital contributed by each partner.
- v. The amount of drawings permissible for each partner.
- vi. Rate of Interest on Capital and Drawings, if any.
- vii. Profit Sharing Ratio of the partners.
- viii. Rate of Interest on Loan given by partners to the firm.
- ix. Accounting and Audit procedures of the firm.
- x. Methods of valuation of the Goodwill of the firm.
- xi. Provisions for admission, retirement and insolvency of partners.
- xii. Provisions for Dissolution of the firm and settlement of accounts after dissolution.
- xiii. Division of work among the partners and their Remuneration / Commission, if any.
- xiv. Method of operating Bank Accounts and authority for signing the cheques.
- xv. Other terms and conditions which are agreed by all the partners.

Indian Partnership Act, 1932

The Indian Partnership Act is in force since 1932. This act is applicable in the absence of partnership deed or if the partnership deed is silent on any specific point. Stated below are the important provisions of this act:

- i. Distribution of Profits: In the absence of partnership deed, all the partners are treated as equal and they will be entitled to equal share in the Profits and Losses of the business. However, if profit sharing ratio is given, then Profits / Losses should be shared by partners in the agreed ratio only.
- ii. Interest on Capital: According to the Act, no interest is to be allowed on Partner's Capital. However, if a provision is made in the partnership deed, it should be given to the partners as per the agreement.
- iii. Interest on Drawings: As per the Act, there is no provision for Interest on Drawings. However, if the partnership deed states that Interest on Drawings is to be charged, then it should be charged as per the agreement. Interest on Drawings is to be charged for a period of six months in cases where the total amount of Drawings is given but the dates of withdrawals are not available.

- iv. Interest on Partner's Loan: Interest on Loan should be allowed at the rate of 6% per annum as per the Act. If a separate provision is made in the partnership deed then interest should be allowed as per the agreement.
- v. Salary or Commission to Partners: Partners are not entitled to any Salary or Commission for doing any additional or extra work for the firm. However, if any special provision is made in the partnership deed then it should be provided as per the agreement.
- vi. Admission of a New Partner: According to the Act, a person can be admitted into partnership only with the consent of all the existing partners.

Methods of Capital Accounts

An amount contributed by a partner either in the form of cash or kind into the business of a partnership firm is known as Partner's Capital. This amount may be equal or it may be in the profit sharing ratio or as per the common understanding among partners. Capital Accounts of partners can be maintained in two ways:

i. Fixed Capital Method:

Under the Fixed Capital Method, the amount of capital of the partners remains fixed unless some additional capital is introduced or some amount of capital is withdrawn by an agreement among the partners. Thus, under fixed capital method, two accounts are maintained for each partner namely Partners Capital Account and Partners Current Account.

a. Partner's Capital Account: The below items are recorded in this account:

1. Amount contributed by a partner at the beginning.
2. Additional Capital introduced by a partner during the year.
3. Part of capital amount withdrawn during the year.

Journal Entries recorded in Partners Capital Account under Fixed Capital Method:

ii. Fluctuating Capital Method:

In the Fluctuating Capital Method, only one account i.e. Partner's Capital Account is maintained for each partner. All the transactions affecting a Partner's Account like Interest on Capital, Drawings, Interest on Drawings, Salary/Commission to Partners and Share of Profit or Loss are recorded in the Partner's Capital Account. As a result of this, the Closing Balance of the Partner's Capital Account keeps fluctuating (changing). Thus, it is known as the Fluctuating Capital Method. Below transactions are recorded in the Partner's Capital Account under this method:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1. Capital Introduced or the Opening Balance | 2. Additional Capital introduced during the year |
